Mr. James Breen, an old and well-known resident, died at his home on the northwest corner of Gibbon and Patrick streets at an early hour last night. The deceased was a native of Ireland, but came to this country in early life and amade Alexandria his bome. He was a stonemason by occupation and over half a century ago was among those em-ployed in the construction of the Orange d Alexandria Rattroad, now a part of the Southern system. The deceased was n workman on the Wilkes street tunnel which was constructed about 55 years ago. During the past ten or twelve years he had been a railroad gatekeeper, and was for a long time stationed at Wilkes and Alfred streets. He was later transferred to Prince and Henry streets, and when the Henry street track all the parties concerned and Rev. W. was abandoned he was made night flagman at St. Asaph. The deceased leaves Rev. W. Strother Jones, by request, reseven children—four sons and three daughters. He was of a jovial nature and had a large number of friends and acquaintances, all of whom will regret to hear of his death. Mr. Breen was about 80 years of age.

Rechabites.

Perseverance Tent, No. 1098, of Rechabites, held an interesting meeting last night. One candidate was initiated in the order. After all the business had been transacted, the committee of the "Country Social" made their report, which showed that the entertainment was a success. The lodge will hold a fair in February at Odd Fellows' Hall on north Washington were present at the meeting and they will unite with the tent of this city to make the fair a success.

The New Depot.

The lighting appliances have been installed in the new union depot, and by the 1st of March the current will be received from the power house now in yards adjoining Alexandria on the north. The illumination will be by a combination of gas and electricity. There are 16 gas jets and 24 electric bulbs in the main waiting room an I ten lights in the ladies' waiting room. The ticket lighted by electricty.

Personal.

Rev. J. P. Stump, having served the M. E. Church South in this city for four years, will end his pastorate next April, as under a rule of the Baltimore couference the preachers are transferred to other charges every four years. Not only his congregation but his friends throughout the city will regret his de-

Mr. George Grantham and Miss Lillian Roundriee, of Washington, were united in marriage at the Baptist pastorium yesterday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Fisher.

Deaths of Colored People.

Coleman Washington, colored, died at the Alexandria Hospital this morning. The deceased had been a sufferer from Martha Lindsey, colored, died at her home, 120 south Fayette street, yester-day. The deceased was a native of Fair-

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning :

Wm. Bell, colored, arrested by Officer Smith for disorderly conduct for assaulting Elizabeth Gaines, was Harrie Shirley, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed for want of evidence.

Disappearance of Dyers.

Complaint has been made to the station house by a fireman on the Southern Railway that a man and a woman who have recently been conducting the dying and scouring business in this city have dieappeared with some garments belonging to the complainant. It is said that other customers of the couple who had also entrusted clothing with them are anxious to ascertain their whereabouts.

Religious Meeting.

A large congregation attended the meeting at the First Baptist Church last night. Dr. Blackwell captured the people with his first sermon. His sub-ject was "The Two Foundations," one on rock, one on sand, and his treatment of the subject was so simple and practical, that the children, many of whom evere present, could easily understand it.

The May Hillman Company.

The May Hillman Stock Company pened a week's engagement at the Opera louse last night, producing "Children | Salan," a four act melodrama. Miss Hillman was seen in four characters and gave a perfect interpretation of the parts.

Miss Hillman has a fine German dialect and in the character of "Hilds" scored and in the character of 'Hida' scored a distinct hit. George Rosener played the part of 'Ned Sirad' in a praise-worthy manner, while Wm. Sullivan as Bret Sinclair and Minnie M. Gordon as "Lillian, the countess," were both ex-cellent. Ail the other characters of the drama were in capable hands. The drama were in capable hands. The specialties were some of the best ever seen in this city, and were heartily applauded, especially the trick bicycle riding and the hoop rolling. The Hillman Company is without doubt the best repettoire company seen in this city for mary years and has a list of the best comedies and dramas ever accounted. comedies and dramas ever presented at popular prices. Insemuch as the house was crowded last night, a large audience is expected each night.

Mr. Harry F. Wheat has sold to the Red
"C" Manufacturing Company, of Baltimere, a lot on the east side of Fairfax street, between Queen and Princess.

Mrs. Smoot's Will Probated. The will of the late Mrs. Frances P. Smoot was admitted to probate in the Corporation Court today by consent of Strother Jones qualified as executor signed as trustee for Miss Rose Ella Smoot and Mr. Worth Hulfish was appointed in his stead.

Preparing New Wharf. The Mutual Ice Company, Mr. W. M. Readon, president, is now engaged in erecting sheds on the new wharf at the foot of Cameron street. The wharf will, about the first of March, be used by the Baltimore and Randail line steamers. This is the largest and one of the best piers on the river front.

Court Martial. A summary court martial was held at Armory Hall last night to invertigate the case of Frank Jeffries, a member of appointed to make arrangements for the same. Visitors from Rechabite Tents of the Alexandria Light Infantry, who was measure for four years and read record The accused had a fine imposed upon him.

[COMMUNICATED.

Numerously signed commendable petiions have gone forth to our legislators looking to the protection of the gaming interests of this State, but I fail to have seen one solicitous of the fishing inter-ests. Don't you think if we would incourse of construction at the new union terest ourselves in doing away with all trap-net fishing for two that it would re ound to the benefit of humanity. From Smith's Point, at the mouth of the river, to Jones's Point, below this city, they fill the river, both dengerous to navigation and disastrous office and baggage, toilet and other to the young fish. Not more than one-rooms in the building are to be brilliantly third of their product is marketable, while the young are cast upon the shores of Maryland and of our own State to decay. I would like to see you interest yourself in this matter. It is getting so one can hardly catch a mullet or catfish, much less the fine white perch which used to be so plentiul. GEO. H. HAYDEN.

Washington, Jan. 30. SENATE

Hon. J. McMullen, Senator for Ontorio in the Canadian parliament, was on the Senate floor at the opening today, he guest of Mr Warner.

By the u animous adoption of a resolu tion the Senate ordered paid the funeral expenses of the late Senator J. H. Mitchell, of Oregon

A stir was created in the Senate to day wien Mr. Eik ns of West Virginia, renewed his no ion or yesterday, to have the committee on Interstate Commerce discharged from further consideration of the employer liability law. Mr. D nicl charged that the game of battledore was shuttlecock had been in progress on that merce, and judiciary, often passing from one to the other. He moved that it go to the committee on education and labor, instead of the judiciary committee, as desired by Mr. E.kins. Mr. Penrose wanted action. Mr. Foraker and Mr. Newlands, members of the committee, declared that they had no objection to the bill. Mr. Aldrich opposed the Daniel motion.

HOUSE.

The railroad rate debate legan in the House immediately after the reading of the journal.

The only preliminary sparring was be tween Mr. Hepburn, chairman of the interstate committee, and Mr. William, democratic floor leader, the former de manding that debate he confined to the bill itself, the later objecting.

Mr. Hepburn gracefully withdrew from the field, and the debate opened with Mr. Townsend, of Michigan, on behalf of the republicans.

He was followed by Representative Adamson, of leorgia, in charge of the debate for the democrats.
